

Round-up

• Mint Making Money

OTTAWA. — The

Royal Canadian Mint has reported on its operations. Its consolidated profit before face value revaluation and income taxes increased to $10.4 million for the quarter (2016 – $3.2 million) and the overall profit margin increased from 0.6 per cent in 2016 to 2.7 per cent in 2017. The mint reports that 413 million Canadian coins were produced in the quarter (2016 – 461 million) to replenish inventories held on behalf of the Department of Finance. There were 296 million foreign coins and blanks shipped in the quarter. The Royal Canadian Mint is the crown corporation responsible for the minting and distribution of Canada's circulation coins.
