

Man, Woman Face Drug, Theft Charges After Stolen Truck Found in Hughenden

Killam RCMP responded to report of a stolen truck in Hughenden when a friend of the Dodge Ram's owner spotted the vehicle in Hardisty, Alta. on May 22. The owner then called police.

Before police arrived, two suspects left an inn and started driving the stolen truck. The truck was found back in Hughenden, Alta. several hours later where it was also reported the suspects had fled on foot.

Killam RCMP with help from Provost, Consort and Coronation detachments and police dog services searched the area. One suspect was arrested without incident. A call was received from the public about a second suspect who was arrested several hours later.

A search warrant was executed at a room at the Hardisty inn the same day and police seized 40 grams of heroin, cannabis, ammunition, tools and various identification items which were reported stolen.

A 32 year old man, Daniel Newton, and a 28 year old female, Derryl-Leigh Whitney George, both of Camrose were charged with possession of stolen property over $5,000 and possession of a controlled substance (heroin).

Newton was also charged with possession of ammunition while prohibited. "Apprehending these offenders was a priority for all of the detachments involved," says Cpl. Trent Cleveland, Killam RCMP detachment commander. "We appreciate the tips received during this investigation as it assisted us in arresting repeat offenders and disrupting their illegal activities."

The two accused were released after a hearing and were to appear in Killam Provincial Court on June 5.
