

A boy gets a different look at his world as he takes a leap off the high board in town after supper. ©PROVOST NEWS PHOTO.

aula Motley answers the phone while behind the counter at the Metiskow Canada Post office that is connected to her mother's house. Motley, who lives near Hughenden, was filling in while her mom, Linda Colp, who is the postmaster was away on a business meeting. Motley knows the ropes since she helped out on the mail routes back when she was in Grades 10, 11 and 12. ©PROVOST NEWS PHOTO.

Amisk resident Dennis Hall finds patches of grass to mow at his workplace in Hughenden at the M.D. 52 west end shop yard. ©PROVOST NEWS PHOTO.

It was time to spray the deck and the weather looked good enough so Fred Weinkauf had the paint gun out at 10:40 a.m.
—while Rudy Weinkauf kept his distance.

©Provost News Photo.

Mavis Petrie works on a landscaping project at Dr. Folkins School in Chauvin to help beautify the grounds. ©PROVOST NEWS PHOTO.

