Website and Photo Essay Are Canadian Winners

The Provost News has placed third for "Best Web Site Design" (newspaper circulation up to 3,999) in the recently announced Canadian Community Newspapers Association awards.

This site is now often exceeding 100 hits per day and space is available to place a small ad on the home page that can link to more of your information.

In the Best Photo Essay (newspaper circulation up to 3,999) The Provost News came in a close second place for a two page colour spread called Exploring Nature's Great Sandbox.

These two awards will added to others earned at both the provincial and national level over the years.
